

Dear Ms Carle,

April 6, 2009

Today I received many phone calls from people who appreciated your talent, knowledge and showmanship. You are a very generous entertainer who demonstrated so much interest in our venue, and the members who were there yesterday are appreciative of the kind endorsements which you gave to the Bristol Historical Society Museum. Not just once, but many times. Your authority lends to our reputation as there were 17 guests present who had never been to any of our events. I spoke to all of them after your performance, and they all plan to return to some of our other 2009 programs.

Yesterday I emailed our board of directors a description of the afternoon and the lingering sweet smell of success, all accomplished without benefit of a tussy mussy.

Gratefully,

Carol Denehy
Vice-president
Bristol Historical Society Museum
